Dear Sir or Madam:

Federal Times, an independent weekly newspaper that covers the civil service, wants to expand its coverage of personnel appointments in the government.

We're looking for executive-level and other important department and agency appointments and promotions -- career and non-career -- to run in our weekly appointments column.

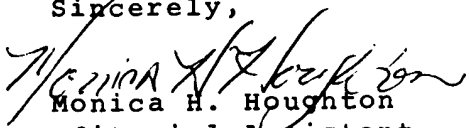

Please put us on your mailing list for your personnel announcements. If your office doesn't generally handle this type of news, please refer this inquiry to the appropriate source.

Please address all correspondence to:

Appointments Editor

Thank-you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Monica H. Houghton
Editorial Assistant

Appointments

President Reagan has nominated Woodward Kingman to succeed James Hackett as an associate director of the U.S. Information Agency.

William Lynn Engles has been appointed commissioner of the Administration for Native Americans by HHS Secretary Margaret M. Heckler. Engles is a member of the Oneida Tribe of Wisconsin and has been involved in Native American affairs at the state and national level.

For five years Engles served as the director of the Office of Public Affairs for the Bureau of Indian Affairs in Washington, D.C., and since 1981 served as an intergovernmental affairs officer for the Bureau of Indian Affairs in Portland, Ore.

The former head of GSA's Office of Federal Supply and Services, Lester L. Mitchell, has been named commissioner of GSA's Public Buildings Service.

Mitchell, who has been with GSA since 1958, succeeds Richard O. Haase.

In the Department of Labor, Raymond J. Donovan appointed Susan R. Meisinger to succeed Robert B. Collyer as head of the wide-ranging employment standards program.

Before joining the Labor Department, Meisinger was a staff attorney for the Associated Builders and Contractors in Washington, D.C. Since 1981 she was executive assistant to Collyer.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of William H. Taft, IV to be deputy secretary of Defense.
